

Tissot T-Touch Connect Sport Powered by nature, crafted for you.

Your daily companion for an active life: A fine watch with Sport & Health functions. All-in-one.

Tissot has consistently been at the forefront of blending style and functionality. Carrying on this legacy and inspired by the recent triumph of the T-Touch Connect Solar, Tissot proudly presents the new T-Touch Connect Sport. A unisex Swiss Made sports watch designed for active individuals who value their well-being and appreciate a genuine timepiece on their wrist.

The Tissot T-Touch Connect Sport, powered by quartz and recharged by the sun, showcases a 43mm diameter design. The high-performance solar cells on the watch dial capture light, storing energy in an accumulator that keeps the watch running for months without needing a recharge. Additionally, the watch boasts a tactile sapphire glass, equipped with an AMOLED screen, responsive to direct touch or via the side pushers, offering a versatile interactive experience.

Available in various bezel and case colours, the T-Touch Connect Sport is a symbol of an active lifestyle, marrying materials like ceramic and titanium with sophisticated brushed and polished finishing. It complements your active lifestyle while maintaining the high-quality standards of a long-lasting watch.

Functionality and performance are at the heart of the T-Touch Connect Sport, focusing on features tailored to modern, health-conscious, and sporty individuals. From tracking workouts to receiving notifications, it emphasises well-being and connectivity. As time progresses, both the app and watch will receive updates, enhancing features and ushering in new functionalities.

Sports Activities – Watch & App Features

WORKOUTS

The “Workouts” feature enables users to select from a range of activities. Once the chosen activity commences, live stats including distance, speed, heart rate, and calorie consumption are readily available.

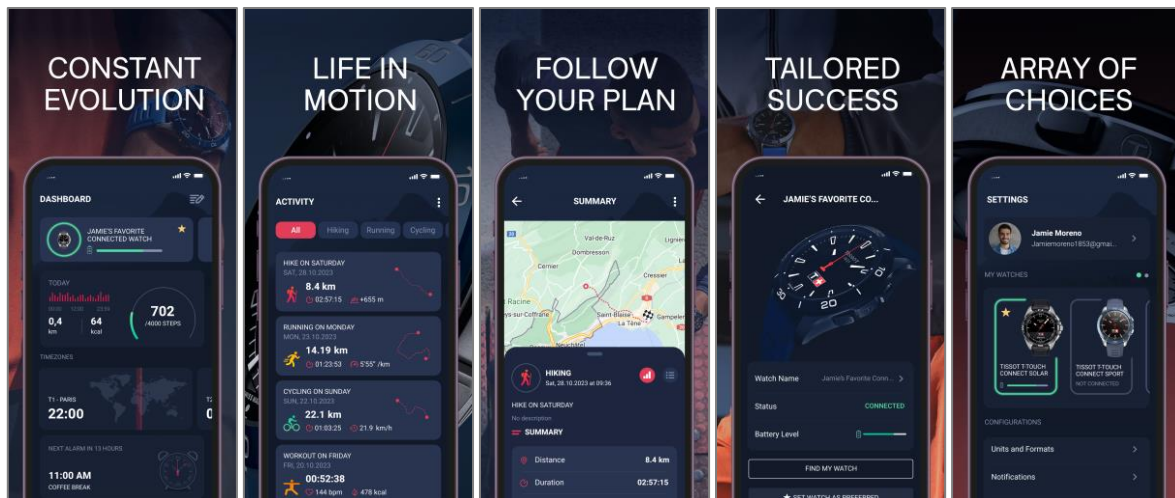

STATS

The “Stats” feature offers a deeper dive into your workout. Users can explore the app for a complete analysis with performance graphs and trends, to track the progress they’ve made. The training zone graph further empowers users to gauge and comprehend their fitness progression.

Stay Connected

The T-Touch Connect Sport integrates notifications for incoming calls, active timers, alarms, reminders and more, ensuring you never miss a beat. The watch’s colourful display adapts to the functionality being shown, adding a touch to its sporty design and enhancing the user experience.

While its primary function is to keep wearers informed, it doesn't seek to replace your phone. Instead, it offers timely updates, whilst always emphasising its core identity – a genuine watch. When an essential text or call comes in, wearers are notified in real-time, allowing them to decide if pulling out their phone is necessary.

Autonomy & Compatibility

The watch boasts a battery performance that stands unmatched:

- Infinite autonomy in watch mode¹.
- 6 months in standard connected mode².
- 3 months in sport connected mode³.

Moreover, the Tissot Application, is compatible with most iOS, Android, and Harmony devices, making it the ideal companion for all tech-savvy individuals.

Design & Features

The T-Touch Connect Sport is a marvel of design, encapsulating noble materials with state-of-the-art technology. The photovoltaic cell, combined with Super-LumiNova®, ensures visibility even in dim light. The ease of interchanging between the lightweight titanium bracelet and the versatile silicon strap further enhances user convenience and style. Surrounding the dial is an elegant ceramic bezel, further elevating the watch's aesthetic, making both traditional watch lovers and sports enthusiasts value this piece.

About Tissot

Tissot, watchmakers blending tradition and pioneering spirit since 1853.

Nestled in the Swiss mountains of Le Locle, Tissot crafts watches that become the storytellers of life's voyage: it's not just the destination that matters, but the importance of the path filled with significant milestones and unforgettable memories. The brand's ambassadors, including American basketball star Damian Lillard, Italian motorcycling sensation Enea Bastianini, Slovenian cyclist Primož Roglič, and Chinese Actors Liu Yifei and Simon Gong exemplify the hours of dedication preceding one's excellence. On a broader stage, Tissot also partners with the NBA, MotoGP™, and the Tour de France as their Official Timekeeper. Discover Tissot's collections : T-Touch, PRX, Chemin des Tourelles. Every Swiss timepiece crafted embodies a fusion of heritage and innovation, and while priced accessibly, stands as an enduring legacy defying the constraints of time. Going beyond watchmaking and timekeeping, Tissot accompanies individuals in every moment, celebrating not only the achievements, but the journey itself.
